

HOME MATTERS.

CITY AND VICINITY.

John A. Arthur has an attack of grip.

A physician reports 500 cases of the grip in the city.

P. H. Devereille, U. V. M. '95, has been appointed principal of the Cherry street evening school.

Walter O. Lane has a position in the Howard National bank.

George E. Johnson, clerk of the United States Court, is improving slowly but is still confined to his bed.

The partnership of Dods & Drow in the Queen City Soap Works has been dissolved. Mr. Drow retiring.

Mrs. E. M. Weston and family of Cascoville, N. Y., are located at 20 Winslow avenue for the winter.

Miss Anna L. Burnham of Montpelier, who has been in the city visiting relatives, returned home Saturday.

A. G. Poire and wife have returned from a visit with their son, Lieut. W. E. Poire, and wife in Troy, N. Y.

Mrs. S. M. Flint is in West Randolph, where she was called by the critical illness of her father, John Flint.

Mr. J. Barnes has moved into his new house just completed on North Willard street, next to Pearl street.

Sheriff Hayes searched Pulson's Hotel at Essex Junction Friday evening, seizing quantities of whiskey, gin and beer.

Miss Hattie Pope left on the express Monday evening for Washington, where she will remain with friends through the winter.

The Lang & Goodhue Manufacturing company are moving their foundry plant from the Pioneer shops to their new shops at the addition.

Miss Jennie Thynns returned Saturday from Indianapolis, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. A. S. Ayers, for the past two years.

The Central Vermont railroad, beginning this week, has arranged for the running of an all night train carrying the winter from New York to Burlington.

A party of 30 young people attended a bon Wednesday evening in Westland and another celebration which filled a large four horse wagon went to Shelburne to a dance there.

The ball given in City Hall by the Hook and Ladder company Wednesday evening was attended by about 60 couples. The Howard Opera House orchestra furnished the music.

The head dealers held a meeting Friday and agreed to advance the prices of coal 25 cents per ton, which makes the prices as follows: Stone and coal, $9.75; egg and grate, $9.50.

Inquiry at the customs house affirms the statement of the special inspectors that the migration of returning Chippewas to Ucle Sack's denials, through this district, is unusually large now. All claim to be merchants.

The Central Vermont freight officials report that their poultry train arrived in Boston promptly on time and with all of its 443 tons of poultry in better condition than ever before, it being delivered in a most satisfactory manner.

The carpenters took which the burglars used in entering Warren's store at Williston and which they left behind them were stolen from Ben. S. A. Brown of Essex Junction and have since been identified by him as his property.

The marriage of Miss Kate Brush of Willamstown, who a summer or two ago sang in the choir of the College street church in this city, to Clinton N. Field, cashier of the Barre National bank took place at the bride's home Wednesday.

The Steamer Redoubt will be towed to Shelburne harbor within a few days, where she is to be overhauled. As soon as the repairs are completed, the steamer will begin the regular trips which will be under the supervision of Capt. Sawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Jardine of Passumpsic, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Peck of this city. Mrs. Jardine is the daughter of Hon. George H. Peck of Elmore, Cal., a Burlington boy, who left for his Western home many years ago.

Thursday morning was the coldest of the season thus far, thermometers registering from two to eight below zero in different parts of the city. The mercury rose very considerably during the day, and the streets were filled with sleighs during the afternoon.

The Burlington cotton mills are running on nearly full time, and Treasurer Severance reports that the mills will probably be kept in operation, providing dry weather does not interfere with the supply of water in the Wisconsin river, which furnishes power to run the mill.

Contractor Goodell says that he has the shells of the new dock in the south end of the harbor and expects to complete filling them with stone by the present week, after which further work will be suspended until next summer, when the dock will be completed.

The Y. P. C. E. society of the College street church elected officers for the year running at a meeting held Monday evening. The election resulted as follows: President, S. M. Flint; vice-president, Miss Kate Wright; secretary, Mrs. S. M. Flint; treasurer, Fred B. Bates.

Mr. Frank G. Bigelow, cashier of the First National bank of Milwaukee, Wis., is believed a resident of Burlington, is in the city, the guest of his former schoolmate, Hon. Robert Roberts. Mr. Bigelow has established a reputation as one of the ablest bankers in the West.

The kindness, in which 350 young people take part, is being given at the opera house this week for the benefit of the Old Fellows and Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. The 25th night and dances in fancy costumes under electric lights are being witnessed by a large audience.

Peter Smith, whose death occurred Monday, was well known by many of Burlington's old residents. He acquired considerable fame in Burlington as a poet, writing his political poems under the name of "The Third Ward Democrat." Mr. Smith's death will be greatly regretted by his many friends.

The New London and Northern railroad, a part of the Central Vermont system, has sent out its report for the quarter ending September 30. The net earnings show a decrease of $1235 over last year, while the surplus has decreased $4339. Charges for the quarter this year were $49,208 against $47,198 last year.

The 15th annual session of Mount Sinai temple, comprising the State, will be held at Capital Hill, Montpelier, next Friday evening. Five members of the temple have died during the past year. They were David Trull, James F. Walker, Harvey S. Calderwood, Norman W. Frink and Jerome B. Smith.

The mixed train on the Bristol railroad, which connects at New Haven Junction with the local trains on the Rutland division, ran off an open switch at Bristol Friday afternoon and the locomotive and a freight

THE FRIEND OF LABOR.

T. J. Moore is President of the Trades' Council.

Well Known Trustee of the Painters' Union in Toledo.

Many Other Workmen Having the Same Struggle for Existence.

The painter just past bore hardest upon the workmen and women.

There has been the greatest worry. They have had to labor harder than ever to support their families. To day there are thousands of overworked and overworn people struggling along, many of them under the burden of despondency, or insomnia, unhappy and fretful, but not hopeless—as Mr. Moore shows.

Those who awake more tired than when they went to bed, with an unpleasant taste in the mouth, and the tongue parched,

The museum of the University received Tuesday from Chicago a valuable collection of Australian and South Sea Island spears, war clubs, etc. The collection formed a part of the New South Wales exhibit at the world's fair and was secured by Prof. Perkins at a considerable cost. The collection is one of the finest and most valuable of its kind in the United States and was considered a prize for the purchaser.

The American Sign company, whose works were destroyed by fire last October, has reorganized with H. G. Bender as manager, and will remove the business to Cleveland, Ohio, at once. The reorganization and removal indicates that the effort to form a company and continue the business in Winslow has failed.

The St. Albans and Burlington High school football eleven will not play the third game to decide the championship. Two of the Burlington team were ill and could not play on the day agreed upon, and the St. Albans boys will not consent to a change of date, so the teams will not meet again this year. Our High school eleven, however, are entitled to be called the champions. The eleven have beaten every team the St. Albans eleven have defeated, and also the Sophomore team, which team defeated the St. Albans boys 16 to 0.

The creditors of Rev. L. M. Hardy met him at his request at Hon. W. L. Burnham's office, the evening of the 25th. After the six o'clock dinner Mr. Hardy finds himself financially embarrassed, and is endeavoring to settle his debts without going through the formalities of the insolventcy court. The meeting resulted in the appointment of the following committee to investigate and report: E. H. Fowell, Elias Lyman and C. F. Smith. Mr. Hardy's liabilities are $8000. It is thought by the creditors that the trustee of Bishop Hall, Mr. C. H. Smith, of which Mr. Hardy is the sole principal, will come to his assistance.

Frederick L. Howe and the Misses Alice C. and E. M. Shaw, daughters of Judge Shaw, all of Shelburne, came to town on the early train Tuesday morning. After breakfasting Mr. Howe procured a marriage license, representing that he was a resident of this city. With the young ladies he then went to the Episcopal residence where he and Miss Shaw were married by the Rev. Michael. They will travel to the marriage house with them at Princess Hotel, Hamilton, Bermuda, and the inference is that the wedding couple, who departed on the noon train, have gone to New York, whence they will go to the Bermudas. Miss Shaw returned to Brattleboro.

TOUCHES OF JUSTICE.

Officers in the Hands of the Police and Before Judge Peck.

In City Court Wednesday, Frank Kelley, who was arrested for intoxication Tuesday, pleaded guilty to a second offense, and was fined $10 and costs, amounting in all to $18.00. State's Attorney Cushman appeared for the State.

Thomas Gussone was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $13.07, for a first offense of intoxication. He appeared, Grand Juror Brown appeared for the State and W. H. Collier for the defendant.

James Birnie said guilty to a charge of intoxication and was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $12.51. He attributed his condition to some liquor he had on hand. Grand Juror Brown presided.

Octave Kestler, possibly from the country, was arraigned for intoxication but was remanded to jail for refusing to disclose where he got his liquor. Mr. Brown again appeared for the State.

Theodore Granby, who was bound up for trial by County Court, asked to have his case removed to an inferior court against him, charging him with grand larceny in stealing lumber from the yard of W. D. G. Crane last summer. This was done, and he was remanded to serve six months in the House of Correction.

Charles B. Lee and John Shuman observed Thursday by getting drunk and intoxicating to run Dr. J. H. Baxter's brown motor on North Willard street.

Barney went for the police and Chief Dumas and Officer Canton arrested the delinquents after some resistance on their part. In City Court Friday they pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication and were fined $5 and costs each. They disclosed on Wm. De Noel, the proprietor of a drug store on the corner of North street and North Winslow avenue. He appeared in court and the case against him was continued.

Octave Rustie, who on Wednesday refused to disclose where he got his liquor, became tired of his quarters at the jail and said that John Ross was the man. Ross was left there.

An unsuccessful search for liquor was made Saturday by Sheriff Roberts at Park Murphy's place on Pitkin street. Shortly afterward the same officer searched the saloon kept by Birnie & Walsh, on South Battery street. A locked door impeded his entrance to the building long enough for the proprietor to dispose of all the liquors immediately accessible, but after an hour's search he turned some of the floor in the third story of the block, which revealed a jar and 10 bottles of whiskey. Birnie & Walsh were taken before the County Court only a few hours previous to the search, on the charge of keeping a nuisance.

George Polier of Hinesburgh, a spectator at the trial of the Road vs. Russell case in County Court, was put in jail Saturday for Officer Dossin. The charge against him is intoxication.

George Forier of Hinesburgh, who was arrested Saturday for intoxication, appeared in City Court Monday. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs. He disclosed on W. B. McCarthy's bartender, and E. F. Strong of the City Hotel. The former pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs. Strong did not plead guilty and the case was continued for trial.

Thomas O'Connor was arraigned in City Court Tuesday as the result of a recent disclosure and was fined $10 and costs for selling liquor. He could not pay and was taken to the House of Correction Wednesday to work it out.

THE FRIEND OF LABOR.

T. J. Moore is President of the Trades' Council.

Well Known Trustee of the Painters' Union in Toledo.

Many Other Workmen Having the Same Struggle for Existence.

The painter just past bore hardest upon the workmen and women.

There has been the greatest worry. They have had to labor harder than ever to support their families. To day there are thousands of overworked and overworn people struggling along, many of them under the burden of despondency, or insomnia, unhappy and fretful, but not hopeless—as Mr. Moore shows.

Those who awake more tired than when they went to bed, with an unpleasant taste in the mouth, and the tongue parched,

The museum of the University received Tuesday from Chicago a valuable collection of Australian and South Sea Island spears, war clubs, etc. The collection formed a part of the New South Wales exhibit at the world's fair and was secured by Prof. Perkins at a considerable cost. The collection is one of the finest and most valuable of its kind in the United States and was considered a prize for the purchaser.

The American Sign company, whose works were destroyed by fire last October, has reorganized with H. G. Bender as manager, and will remove the business to Cleveland, Ohio, at once. The reorganization and removal indicates that the effort to form a company and continue the business in Winslow has failed.

The St. Albans and Burlington High school football eleven will not play the third game to decide the championship. Two of the Burlington team were ill and could not play on the day agreed upon, and the St. Albans boys will not consent to a change of date, so the teams will not meet again this year. Our High school eleven, however, are entitled to be called the champions. The eleven have beaten every team the St. Albans eleven have defeated, and also the Sophomore team, which team defeated the St. Albans boys 16 to 0.

The creditors of Rev. L. M. Hardy met him at his request at Hon. W. L. Burnham's office, the evening of the 25th. After the six o'clock dinner Mr. Hardy finds himself financially embarrassed, and is endeavoring to settle his debts without going through the formalities of the insolventcy court. The meeting resulted in the appointment of the following committee to investigate and report: E. H. Fowell, Elias Lyman and C. F. Smith. Mr. Hardy's liabilities are $8000. It is thought by the creditors that the trustee of Bishop Hall, Mr. C. H. Smith, of which Mr. Hardy is the sole principal, will come to his assistance.

Frederick L. Howe and the Misses Alice C. and E. M. Shaw, daughters of Judge Shaw, all of Shelburne, came to town on the early train Tuesday morning. After breakfasting Mr. Howe procured a marriage license, representing that he was a resident of this city. With the young ladies he then went to the Episcopal residence where he and Miss Shaw were married by the Rev. Michael. They will travel to the marriage house with them at Princess Hotel, Hamilton, Bermuda, and the inference is that the wedding couple, who departed on the noon train, have gone to New York, whence they will go to the Bermudas. Miss Shaw returned to Brattleboro.

TOUCHES OF JUSTICE.

Officers in the Hands of the Police and Before Judge Peck.

In City Court Wednesday, Frank Kelley, who was arrested for intoxication Tuesday, pleaded guilty to a second offense, and was fined $10 and costs, amounting in all to $18.00. State's Attorney Cushman appeared for the State.

Thomas Gussone was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $13.07, for a first offense of intoxication. He appeared, Grand Juror Brown appeared for the State and W. H. Collier for the defendant.

James Birnie said guilty to a charge of intoxication and was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $12.51. He attributed his condition to some liquor he had on hand. Grand Juror Brown presided.

Octave Kestler, possibly from the country, was arraigned for intoxication but was remanded to jail for refusing to disclose where he got his liquor. Mr. Brown again appeared for the State.

Theodore Granby, who was bound up for trial by County Court, asked to have his case removed to an inferior court against him, charging him with grand larceny in stealing lumber from the yard of W. D. G. Crane last summer. This was done, and he was remanded to serve six months in the House of Correction.

Charles B. Lee and John Shuman observed Thursday by getting drunk and intoxicating to run Dr. J. H. Baxter's brown motor on North Willard street.

Barney went for the police and Chief Dumas and Officer Canton arrested the delinquents after some resistance on their part. In City Court Friday they pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication and were fined $5 and costs each. They disclosed on Wm. De Noel, the proprietor of a drug store on the corner of North street and North Winslow avenue. He appeared in court and the case against him was continued.

Octave Rustie, who on Wednesday refused to disclose where he got his liquor, became tired of his quarters at the jail and said that John Ross was the man. Ross was left there.

An unsuccessful search for liquor was made Saturday by Sheriff Roberts at Park Murphy's place on Pitkin street. Shortly afterward the same officer searched the saloon kept by Birnie & Walsh, on South Battery street. A locked door impeded his entrance to the building long enough for the proprietor to dispose of all the liquors immediately accessible, but after an hour's search he turned some of the floor in the third story of the block, which revealed a jar and 10 bottles of whiskey. Birnie & Walsh were taken before the County Court only a few hours previous to the search, on the charge of keeping a nuisance.

George Polier of Hinesburgh, a spectator at the trial of the Road vs. Russell case in County Court, was put in jail Saturday for Officer Dossin. The charge against him is intoxication.

George Forier of Hinesburgh, who was arrested Saturday for intoxication, appeared in City Court Monday. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs. He disclosed on W. B. McCarthy's bartender, and E. F. Strong of the City Hotel. The former pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs. Strong did not plead guilty and the case was continued for trial.

Thomas O'Connor was arraigned in City Court Tuesday as the result of a recent disclosure and was fined $10 and costs for selling liquor. He could not pay and was taken to the House of Correction Wednesday to work it out.

THE FRIEND OF LABOR.

T. J. Moore is President of the Trades' Council.

Well Known Trustee of the Painters' Union in Toledo.

Many Other Workmen Having the Same Struggle for Existence.

The painter just past bore hardest upon the workmen and women.

There has been the greatest worry. They have had to labor harder than ever to support their families. To day there are thousands of overworked and overworn people struggling along, many of them under the burden of despondency, or insomnia, unhappy and fretful, but not hopeless—as Mr. Moore shows.

Those who awake more tired than when they went to bed, with an unpleasant taste in the mouth, and the tongue parched,

The museum of the University received Tuesday from Chicago a valuable collection of Australian and South Sea Island spears, war clubs, etc. The collection formed a part of the New South Wales exhibit at the world's fair and was secured by Prof. Perkins at a considerable cost. The collection is one of the finest and most valuable of its kind in the United States and was considered a prize for the purchaser.

The American Sign company, whose works were destroyed by fire last October, has reorganized with H. G. Bender as manager, and will remove the business to Cleveland, Ohio, at once. The reorganization and removal indicates that the effort to form a company and continue the business in Winslow has failed.

The St. Albans and Burlington High school football eleven will not play the third game to decide the championship. Two of the Burlington team were ill and could not play on the day agreed upon, and the St. Albans boys will not consent to a change of date, so the teams will not meet again this year. Our High school eleven, however, are entitled to be called the champions. The eleven have beaten every team the St. Albans eleven have defeated, and also the Sophomore team, which team defeated the St. Albans boys 16 to 0.

The creditors of Rev. L. M. Hardy met him at his request at Hon. W. L. Burnham's office, the evening of the 25th. After the six o'clock dinner Mr. Hardy finds himself financially embarrassed, and is endeavoring to settle his debts without going through the formalities of the insolventcy court. The meeting resulted in the appointment of the following committee to investigate and report: E. H. Fowell, Elias Lyman and C. F. Smith. Mr. Hardy's liabilities are $8000. It is thought by the creditors that the trustee of Bishop Hall, Mr. C. H. Smith, of which Mr. Hardy is the sole principal, will come to his assistance.

Frederick L. Howe and the Misses Alice C. and E. M. Shaw, daughters of Judge Shaw, all of Shelburne, came to town on the early train Tuesday morning. After breakfasting Mr. Howe procured a marriage license, representing that he was a resident of this city. With the young ladies he then went to the Episcopal residence where he and Miss Shaw were married by the Rev. Michael. They will travel to the marriage house with them at Princess Hotel, Hamilton, Bermuda, and the inference is that the wedding couple, who departed on the noon train, have gone to New York, whence they will go to the Bermudas. Miss Shaw returned to Brattleboro.

TOUCHES OF JUSTICE.

Officers in the Hands of the Police and Before Judge Peck.

In City Court Wednesday, Frank Kelley, who was arrested for intoxication Tuesday, pleaded guilty to a second offense, and was fined $10 and costs, amounting in all to $18.00. State's Attorney Cushman appeared for the State.

Thomas Gussone was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $13.07, for a first offense of intoxication. He appeared, Grand Juror Brown appeared for the State and W. H. Collier for the defendant.

James Birnie said guilty to a charge of intoxication and was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $12.51. He attributed his condition to some liquor he had on hand. Grand Juror Brown presided.

Octave Kestler, possibly from the country, was arraigned for intoxication but was remanded to jail for refusing to disclose where he got his liquor. Mr. Brown again appeared for the State.

Theodore Granby, who was bound up for trial by County Court, asked to have his case removed to an inferior court against him, charging him with grand larceny in stealing lumber from the yard of W. D. G. Crane last summer. This was done, and he was remanded to serve six months in the House of Correction.

Charles B. Lee and John Shuman observed Thursday by getting drunk and intoxicating to run Dr. J. H. Baxter's brown motor on North Willard street.

Barney went for the police and Chief Dumas and Officer Canton arrested the delinquents after some resistance on their part. In City Court Friday they pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication and were fined $5 and costs each. They disclosed on Wm. De Noel, the proprietor of a drug store on the corner of North street and North Winslow avenue. He appeared in court and the case against him was continued.

Octave Rustie, who on Wednesday refused to disclose where he got his liquor, became tired of his quarters at the jail and said that John Ross was the man. Ross was left there.

An unsuccessful search for liquor was made Saturday by Sheriff Roberts at Park Murphy's place on Pitkin street. Shortly afterward the same officer searched the saloon kept by Birnie & Walsh, on South Battery street. A locked door impeded his entrance to the building long enough for the proprietor to dispose of all the liquors immediately accessible, but after an hour's search he turned some of the floor in the third story of the block, which revealed a jar and 10 bottles of whiskey. Birnie & Walsh were taken before the County Court only a few hours previous to the search, on the charge of keeping a nuisance.

George Polier of Hinesburgh, a spectator at the trial of the Road vs. Russell case in County Court, was put in jail Saturday for Officer Dossin. The charge against him is intoxication.

George Forier of Hinesburgh, who was arrested Saturday for intoxication, appeared in City Court Monday. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs. He disclosed on W. B. McCarthy's bartender, and E. F. Strong of the City Hotel. The former pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs. Strong did not plead guilty and the case was continued for trial.

Thomas O'Connor was arraigned in City Court Tuesday as the result of a recent disclosure and was fined $10 and costs for selling liquor. He could not pay and was taken to the House of Correction Wednesday to work it out.

THE FRIEND OF LABOR.

T. J. Moore is President of the Trades' Council.

Well Known Trustee of the Painters' Union in Toledo.

Many Other Workmen Having the Same Struggle for Existence.

The painter just past bore hardest upon the workmen and women.

There has been the greatest worry. They have had to labor harder than ever to support their families. To day there are thousands of overworked and overworn people struggling along, many of them under the burden of despondency, or insomnia, unhappy and fretful, but not hopeless—as Mr. Moore shows.

Those who awake more tired than when they went to bed, with an unpleasant taste in the mouth, and the tongue parched,

The museum of the University received Tuesday from Chicago a valuable collection of Australian and South Sea Island spears, war clubs, etc. The collection formed a part of the New South Wales exhibit at the world's fair and was secured by Prof. Perkins at a considerable cost. The collection is one of the finest and most valuable of its kind in the United States and was considered a prize for the purchaser.

The American Sign company, whose works were destroyed by fire last October, has reorganized with H. G. Bender as manager, and will remove the business to Cleveland, Ohio, at once. The reorganization and removal indicates that the effort to form a company and continue the business in Winslow has failed.

The St. Albans and Burlington High school football eleven will not play the third game to decide the championship. Two of the Burlington team were ill and could not play on the day agreed upon, and the St. Albans boys will not consent to a change of date, so the teams will not meet again this year. Our High school eleven, however, are entitled to be called the champions. The eleven have beaten every team the St. Albans eleven have defeated, and also the Sophomore team, which team defeated the St. Albans boys 16 to 0.

The creditors of Rev. L. M. Hardy met him at his request at Hon. W. L. Burnham's office, the evening of the 25th. After the six o'clock dinner Mr. Hardy finds himself financially embarrassed, and is endeavoring to settle his debts without going through the formalities of the insolventcy court. The meeting resulted in the appointment of the following committee to investigate and report: E. H. Fowell, Elias Lyman and C. F. Smith. Mr. Hardy's liabilities are $8000. It is thought by the creditors that the trustee of Bishop Hall, Mr. C. H. Smith, of which Mr. Hardy is the sole principal, will come to his assistance.

Frederick L. Howe and the Misses Alice C. and E. M. Shaw, daughters of Judge Shaw, all of Shelburne, came to town on the early train Tuesday morning. After breakfasting Mr. Howe procured a marriage license, representing that he was a resident of this city. With the young ladies he then went to the Episcopal residence where he and Miss Shaw were married by the Rev. Michael. They will travel to the marriage house with them at Princess Hotel, Hamilton, Bermuda, and the inference is that the wedding couple, who departed on the noon train, have gone to New York, whence they will go to the Bermudas. Miss Shaw returned to Brattleboro.

TOUCHES OF JUSTICE.

Officers in the Hands of the Police and Before Judge Peck.

In City Court Wednesday, Frank Kelley, who was arrested for intoxication Tuesday, pleaded guilty to a second offense, and was fined $10 and costs, amounting in all to $18.00. State's Attorney Cushman appeared for the State.

Thomas Gussone was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $13.07, for a first offense of intoxication. He appeared, Grand Juror Brown appeared for the State and W. H. Collier for the defendant.

James Birnie said guilty to a charge of intoxication and was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $12.51. He attributed his condition to some liquor he had on hand. Grand Juror Brown presided.

Octave Kestler, possibly from the country, was arraigned for intoxication but was remanded to jail for refusing to disclose where he got his liquor. Mr. Brown again appeared for the State.

Theodore Granby, who was bound up for trial by County Court, asked to have his case removed to an inferior court against him, charging him with grand larceny in stealing lumber from the yard of W. D. G. Crane last summer. This was done, and he was remanded to serve six months in the House of Correction.

Charles B. Lee and John Shuman observed Thursday by getting drunk and intoxicating to run Dr. J. H. Baxter's brown motor on North Willard street.

Barney went for the police and Chief Dumas and Officer Canton arrested the delinquents after some resistance on their part. In City Court Friday they pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication and were fined $5 and costs each. They disclosed on Wm. De Noel, the proprietor of a drug store on the corner of North street and North Winslow avenue. He appeared in court and the case against him was continued.

Octave Rustie, who on Wednesday refused to disclose where he got his liquor, became tired of his quarters at the jail and said that John Ross was the man. Ross was left there.

An unsuccessful search for liquor was made Saturday by Sheriff Roberts at Park Murphy's place on Pitkin street. Shortly afterward the same officer searched the saloon kept by Birnie & Walsh, on South Battery street. A locked door impeded his entrance to the building long enough for the proprietor to dispose of all the liquors immediately accessible, but after an hour's search he turned some of the floor in the third story of the block, which revealed a jar and 10 bottles of whiskey. Birnie & Walsh were taken before the County Court only a few hours previous to the search, on the charge of keeping a nuisance.

George Polier of Hinesburgh, a spectator at the trial of the Road vs. Russell case in County Court, was put in jail Saturday for Officer Dossin. The charge against him is intoxication.

George Forier of Hinesburgh, who was arrested Saturday for intoxication, appeared in City Court Monday. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs. He disclosed on W. B. McCarthy's bartender, and E. F. Strong of the City Hotel. The former pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs. Strong did not plead guilty and the case was continued for trial.

Thomas O'Connor was arraigned in City Court Tuesday as the result of a recent disclosure and was fined $10 and costs for selling liquor. He could not pay and was taken to the House of Correction Wednesday to work it out.

THE FRIEND OF LABOR.

T. J. Moore is President of the Trades' Council.